CURLERS' ANNUAL BANQUET

Enthusiastic Gathering of Knights of the Besom and Stane
Augers Well For a Successful Season.

The Red Deer Curlers held their annual banquet and business meeting in the new Town Hall on Friday night last. The attendance was very good, notwithstanding the fact that there was at least two other attractions of importance in town that night.

T. A. Gaetz, President, took the chair, and called the meeting to order. He welcomed those present very cordially, and explained the reasons for the banquet, which was put up by Vice-President Carswell and his wife, being different from that of previous years, and he thought that this might be the best way.

He spoke of the efforts made to get the hotels to undertake the banquet, and having failed, the Mayor and Council voluntarily allowed them the use of the Hall.

The President then called for the toast "The King," which was taken standing, the National Anthem being sung.

A pianoforte solo by Harry Thompson followed, which was well rendered and cordially acknowledged.

The next toast proposed was "The Caledonian Curling Club by A. R. Gibson, coupling with it the name of W. E. Payne. Mr. Gibson was quite at home with this toast. He gave it in the real Scotch tongue, and it suited the audience splendidly, causing roars of laughter. His remarks were good, well given, and greatly appreciated by his hearers.

W. E. Payne, in replying, apologized for not being able to speak with the Scotch tongue, and said there was more Irish in him than Scotch, referring, of course, to blood. Mr. Payne is an old curler and his remarks were listened to with great attention.

W. H. Huxley sang "Henry the Eighth I am" in a style that earned him a great encore, following with a humorous song entitled "Mary Ann, She's After Me," again getting a good reception.

The chairman next called upon Mayor Welliver to present the Red Deer Cup, which he did in a brief but very acceptable speech. He believed curling to be the best sport obtainable in winter, and he realized that the Red Deer Curling Club was made up of good sports who were in it for the good of the game.

He pointed out that this town had not had the fair play she was entitled to from Calgary, and that this year there would be two divisions, as it were—north and south, with Red Deer the dividing line. He pointed out that certain Red Deer would rise above showing any prejudice against any club or town, he thought it would be better to throw in with the Edmonton club who had always good ice, and were good sports, and always ready to do the right thing.

He said it gave him great pleasure to present the cup and individual prizes to the winning rink, but that, as a curler, he did not propose letting them hold it longer than with one year. His remarks were applauded very heartily.

Lennie Porter, who took charge of the cup and prize in the absence of Dr. Plaxton, said he accepted them with great pleasure, although he did not feel he had done much towards the winning of them, but had certainly gained experience.

Harry Webb was next called upon for a musical selection. He first of all played two selections of the fairy bells or, to be correct, the winning zither. To most of the audience this was something new, and Mr. Webb was heartily encored. His next item was the playing of the one string violin, which earned him another encore, following with a great exhibition with the bones, which fairly brought down the house.

Mr. Webb was accompanied by Ed. Welliver on the piano.

Harry Wallace was next called upon to present the Brompton Cup to the Campbell rink. He said that he felt it was realized among curlers that it was better to give than receive, but that the difficulty with curlers was that they never had anything to give.

He wished to congratulate the President and Vice-President for the spread before them. He believed it was better to spend the evening that way than round a table loaded with joints, etc., and himself was cutting out eating, say-way. Harry was as usual in a humorous mood.

E. Blacket, in accepting the cup for his rink, was brief, and said he was glad in this case to be the receiver, and that they meant to hold the cup for yet another year.

Rube Etie favored the gathering with a song. He rendered "Rip Van Winkle" in fine style, but we did not catch the chorus.

G. W. Greene was called upon to present the Stephenson Cup. He said he believed it was better to give than receive, and he was a trifle, which caused a hearty laugh. His remarks were good and certainly for the benefit of the game, and because pleased to be a member of a club with such good sports. He believed the winning slip had given every care and attention to his rink and deserved to win. He was sorry that they would likely not have Mr. Gaetz with them this season, but that Rocky Mountain House would likely have a rink to show Red Deer how to curl.

H. L. Gaetz said it gave him great pleasure to accept the cup, particularly as it was his first year of success in curling. He had certainly taken great pains with his rink, and it was owing to two particularly good shots by one of his players that they had won the cup. He was going to Rocky Mountain House, where there was an enthusiastic body of curlers, so that he would still be in the game.

J. A. Carswell next presented the Scott cup. He said this cup was presented to the club by a very enthusiastic old curlers years ago and, unlike the other cups, it was given for singles. It also gave him additional pleasure in presenting the cup to his old friend, Bobbie Brydie, who had assisted him two years ago as vice skip, and had certainly learned some tricks from the left hand work of his skip. He would like to say also that the singles were brought on too late in the season, consequently, owing to bad ice and other reasons, a number of curlers had no chance of playing off for the cup.

Mr. Brydie, in accepting the cup, said he was very pleased, but would have liked it better if more of the ships had entered into the competition. He believed he could lick them all.

H. Webb followed with some artistic work on the banjo, and again was heartily encored. He was accompanied on the piano by Harry Johnson.

W. E. Payne, in presenting the Payne Cup to T. A. Gaetz, said that the cup really came from his wife. He said he himself curled under great difficulties, but was none the less fond of the game. He said an individual prize, a knife, went with the cup, and T. A. Gaetz was fortunate in winning it, as he would now be able to cut his way through with it.

T. A. Gaetz, in accepting the cup and knife, said he was in the position of being a member of the first rink in town years ago, when they played with the iron stones. He said that in those days G. W. Greene made as much noise as anybody, and with them were associated W. M. Jarvis, Dr. Donovan, Phil. Pidgeon and others. He could tell some tales of those days but thought it best to stop.

T. A. Gaetz was then asked, by special request, to sing the old stoncy, "Red River Valley." Everybody helped him sing it, and at the finish encored him so that he had to sing a humorous ditty "I want to go home to my ma."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.
The election of officers was then proceeded with, resulting as follows:
Patron—E. Michener, M.P.P.
Hon. President—T. A. Gaetz.
President—J. A. Carswell.
Vice-President—H. Wallace.
Sec. Treas.—G. H. Lindsay.
Executive—R. B. Welliver, A. R. Gibson, Hugh Clarke, Dr. Plaxton, T. Stephenson.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Council for the use of the Hall; to the concert party who had helped to make the evening a pleasant one, and to the retiring officers for their splendid work during the past year. Proceedings closed with the National Anthem.

The ice will be ready for curling as soon as weather will permit.

Canadian Forresters Social and Dance

The members and friends of the Canadian Order of Forresters held their annual social and dance in the Oddfellows' Hall last Friday evening. The attendance was not so great as expected owing to counter attractions being held the same evening. However, there was quite a number present, and everyone there enjoyed themselves. The dancers had a very good time, the room not being crowded. Bro. A. G. Ayres occupied the chair, and was quite a success. Among the prominent Forresters were noticed Messrs. Jewell, the Organizer, A. Porrester, T. A. Gaetz and Goodey, Recording Secretary.

The musical programme was also a success. Madame Ruth Hope being very fine with her violin selection. Mr. Johnston's singing was heartily applauded, and Sonny Reidy was O. K. with his step dancing. The refreshments, consisting of tea, coffee, cakes and sandwiches, were supplied by Brokenshire, the baker and restaurant keeper.

A CARD OF THANKS.

A card of thanks is heartily extended to the friends and acquaintances of Red Deer who shared with sympathy our sudden bereavement in the death of our beloved daughter.

Signed Mr. and Mrs. George Hogg and Family.

Red Deer Deanery

The Anglican Clergy met together at Inisfail on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, when various matters were discussed. The Rev. Canon Dewdney preached at the evening service on Wednesday. Thursday was begun with Holy Communion. The clergy present were: O. Crichton, Alk.; A. D. Currie, Pine Lake St. T. Carstairs, Olds; W. F. Harris, St. Peter; M. W. Holden, Castor; H. S. Scallion, Inisfail; Canon Dewdney, Calgary; Canon Missioner to the Calgary; and C. W. G. Moore, Red Deer.

Conservative Rally

The young Liberal-Conservative Association has arranged for a grand rally in the Oddfellows' Hall on Wednesday, the 27th of November. It will take the form of a smoker. A good concert programme is being arranged. There will be good short speeches, and a real time is promised. Conservatives and friends, and everybody interested in the re-election of Mr. Michener, our present representative and the next Premier of Alberta, are invited. Come and be a booster for a good man in a good cause.

Obituary Notice

The sad death of Ida Greenwood, beloved wife of Douglas L. Walker, of Everts, took place at Riverview Nursing Home, Edmonton, on Friday, the 15th inst., from the after effects of child birth.

Mrs. Walker was well known in the west country, having taught school in Burnt Lake, Happy Hill and Kansas school districts. She came from London, England, two years ago, and was married to Mr. Walker last December. She was a member of the Church of England, and had lived happily with her husband at Everts. The funeral took place from Connelly & McKinnley's undertaking parlors, Edmonton, to the Edmonton cemetery, Monday, 18th inst., a number of the relatives of the sorrowing husband being present. The services were taken by the Rev. W. Boyd. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. Walker in his great bereavement by a host of friends in the west, in which The News joins.

WIZARD OF SCIENCE.

A New and Exciting Love Story for Young and Old.

the course of a single second Medenham found himself comparing them to blue diamonds in the azure depths of a sunlit sea, to the exquisite tint of the myosotis. Then he swallowed his surprise, and lifted his cap.

"May I ask if you are Miss Vanren?" he said.

"The blue eyes met his. For the first time in his life he was thrilled to the core by a woman's glance.

"Yes."

She answered with a smile, an approving smile, perhaps, for the vistrator.

"Sorry, but the name slipped out unawares. Captain Devar is, or used to be, very easy-going in his ways, you know."

"So it would seem. She turned her back on him disdaintfully. In the circumstances, Cynthia," she said, "I am inclined to believe that we ought to be rather inquisitive before we give our cars, and drivers, in this fashion."

"But what is to be done? All our arrangements are made—our rooms ordered—I have even sent father each day's address. If we change anything by telegraph he will be alarmed."

"Oh, I did not mean that," protested the lady hurriedly. It was evident that she hardly knew what to say. Medenham's wholly unexpected query had unnerved her.

"Is there any alternative?" demanded Cynthia ruefully, glancing from one to the other.

"It is rather late to hire another car to-day, I admit," began Mrs. Devar. "It would be quite impossible to send me, put in Medenham. This is Derby Day, and there is not a motor to be obtained in London except by a brutal race."

It was sheer good luck for Medenham that he was able to secure me for his deputy."

He thanked his stars for that word "deputy." Certainly the mere sound of it seemed to steady his nerves and the appearance of the Mercury was even more reassuring.

"Ah, well," she said, "we are not traveling into the wilds. If desired, we can always return to town by train by the way, chauffeur, what is your name?"

For an instant Medenham hesitated. Then he took the plunge, strong in the belief that a half-forgotten transaction between himself and "Jimmy" Devar would prevent that impetuous warrior from discussing him freely to the family circle.

"George Augustus Fitzroy," he said. Mrs. Devar's brows knitted; she was regarding her self-possession, and a sarcastic smile now played about her perplexing thought. She was about to say something when Cynthia Vanren came in to excitedly.

"I declare to goodness if the hotel people have not fastened on our boys already. They seem to know our minds better than we do ourselves. And here is the man with the wraps."

"—Yes, put it there, with the glasses. What are you doing, Fitzroy? Medenham was discharging his obligations to the boy it buttoned and a porter.

"Paying my debts," said he, smiling at her.

"Of course you realize that I pay all expenses," she said. "I have a requisite note of hater in her voice that the situation called for."

"This is doubly so in the case of my assure you, Miss Vanren."

Medenham could not help smiling, which George and felt a little awkwardly. Cynthia was puzzled. She wrote that evening to Irma Norris, her cousin, and said: "Fitzroy is a new line in chauffeurs."

"By the way, where is your trunk?" she demanded suddenly.

"He came away untried, so he has arranged that it should be sent to Brighton by rail," he explained.

"Apparently they were not so expert as I assure you. I am doing Simmonds a friendly turn in taking his place, so I hope the slight accident will not make any difference to you plans."

"But—why has not Simmonds himself come to explain matters?"

"He could not leave his car, which is in a side street off Piccadilly. He would have sent a note, but he remembered that you had never seen his handwriting, so, as a proof of my genuineness, he gave me your itinerary."

Medenham produced a closely-written sheet of note-paper, which Mrs. Vanren presumably recognized. She turned to her stout companion, who had been summing up car and chauffeur with careful eyes since Medenham first spoke.

"What do you think, Mrs. Devar?" she said.

"When he heard the name, Medenham was so amazed that that left him in a side street off Piccadilly. He would have sent a note, but he remembered that you had never seen his handwriting, so, as a proof of my genuineness, he gave me your itinerary."

"What do you think, Mrs. Devar?" she said.

"When he heard the name, Medenham was so amazed that that left him in a side street off Piccadilly. He would have sent a note, but he remembered that you had never seen his handwriting, so, as a proof of my genuineness, he gave me your itinerary."

Medenham produced a closely-written sheet of note-paper, which Mrs. Vanren presumably recognized. She turned to her stout companion, who had been summing up car and chauffeur with careful eyes since Medenham first spoke.

with a profound rush that vastly discovered a policeman who told Mr. Medenham to "bury up the dip."

Then, having found a clear space, he dozed for a while, and Cynthia, like a true-born American, began the day's business by giving the answer before either of her companions even thought of putting the Great Question.

"Grimalkin will wait," she cried. "Mr. Deane told my father so. I want to put Grimalkin for ten dollars!"

CHAPTER II.
The First Day's Run.
Though Medenham was no turf devotee, he formed distinctly unfavorable impressions as to the financial stability of the bawling bookmakers near at hand.

"If you wish to do any betting, Miss Vanren," he said, "give me the money and I will invest it for you. There is no hurry. The Derby will not be run till three o'clock. We have an hour and a half in which to study for it."

For the life of him he could not imitate the complete annihilation of self practiced by the well-bred English servant. The American girl missed the absence of this trait far less than the other woman, but, by this time, Mrs. Devar began to accept Medenham's good-humored assumption of equality as part of the day's amusement.

Cynthia handed him a card. She had bought while they were crawling up the hill behind a breakfast of fried Cockneys.

"What will win the first race?" she asked. "Patience says you men often hear more than the owners about the real performances of horses."

Medenham tried to look knowing. He thanked his stars for Devar's information.

"I am told Eyot has a chance," he said. "Well, put me a sovereign on Eyot, please. Are you playing the ponies, Mrs. Devar?"

"That lady, being quick-witted, took care not to offend Cynthia, who was pretending not to understand, though she said: Medenham's teeth on edge to hear his racehorse called a pony."

Medenham found, however, that she also had handed him a sovereign, and a sarcastic smile now played about her perplexing thought. She was about to say something when Cynthia Vanren came in to excitedly.

"I declare to goodness if the hotel people have not fastened on our boys already. They seem to know our minds better than we do ourselves. And here is the man with the wraps."

"—Yes, put it there, with the glasses. What are you doing, Fitzroy? Medenham was discharging his obligations to the boy it buttoned and a porter.

"Paying my debts," said he, smiling at her.

"Of course you realize that I pay all expenses," she said. "I have a requisite note of hater in her voice that the situation called for."

"This is doubly so in the case of my assure you, Miss Vanren."

Medenham could not help smiling, which George and felt a little awkwardly. Cynthia was puzzled. She wrote that evening to Irma Norris, her cousin, and said: "Fitzroy is a new line in chauffeurs."

"By the way, where is your trunk?" she demanded suddenly.

"He came away untried, so he has arranged that it should be sent to Brighton by rail," he explained.

"Apparently they were not so expert as I assure you. I am doing Simmonds a friendly turn in taking his place, so I hope the slight accident will not make any difference to you plans."

"But—why has not Simmonds himself come to explain matters?"

"He could not leave his car, which is in a side street off Piccadilly. He would have sent a note, but he remembered that you had never seen his handwriting, so, as a proof of my genuineness, he gave me your itinerary."

He soon returned, and handed them six sovereigns apiece.

"My man paid up like a Briton," he said cheerfully. "I have no reliable information as to the next race, so what do you ladies say if I launch quietly before we attack the ring for the Derby?"

There was an awkward pause. The air of Epsom Downs is stimulating.

"But Tompkinson told me," he interrupted.

"Tompkinson is that your butter friend?"

"Yes. He says that the King's horse will win."

"Surely the owner of Grimalkin must know more about the race than a butler."

"You would not think so, Miss Vanren, if you knew Tompkinson."

"Where is he?" asked Mrs. Devar. "I forgot for the moment, madam," replied Medenham with equal suavity. The lady waited the result. She was sure of her ground now.

"In any case, I imagine that both Mr. Deane and this Tompkinson may be mistaken. I am told that a horse trained by a splendid champion, let me see—here it is! the Honorable Charles Fenton's Vendetta."

It was well that the horse bulging steady eyes were bent over the card, or they could not have failed to catch the flash of the moment that crossed across Medenham's unbroven face as he heard the name of his cousin's horse. MEMBER FOR RED DEER TAKES A MUCH NEEDED HOLIDAY.

It will be a matter of extreme regret to his wide circle of friends and acquaintances to learn that the condition of Mr. Michener's health compels him to take an extended rest from business and politics for a few months. Mr. Michener has worked unremittingly for the past two years, both in business and in the exacting position of leader of the Opposition, and under ordinary conditions would be entitled to a winter's vacation did not the state of his health make it imperative.

In spite of this regrettable necessity that he should leave for a winter in the south, the fortunes of the Conservative party are not likely to suffer in his absence, for the responsibilities of leadership in the next two or three months will be assumed by Mr. George Hoadley, the Conservative whip, in whose hands the interests of the party will be ably looked after.

The work of organization will be carried along without interruption, and with a winter in the south the leader of the party will return with renewed health and strength to the task of winning the province to clean politics and honest government.

There has not been a time since Alberta became a province when the need for such a man as Mr. Michener at the head of the people's demand for better government, or honesty and efficiency in the administration of the public affairs of the province, was of greater importance than at the present moment. Side by side with the clouded fame of the leader of Provincial Liberalism goes the fame of the Conservative leader as a man in whom the people have supreme and growing confidence, and there can be not the slightest doubt that, if the machine of the party in power does not intervene to prevent it, the people of Alberta will, in the next election, demand that the Conservative party take the reins of government and that Mr. Michener undertake, as Premier, the task of repairing the damaged reputation and battered credit of the Province of Alberta.

Mr. Michener left for California last week with his family, but will return when session is called in February next.

LIBERAL DEFEATS.

Liberals have faked the issue in Hochelaga. For weeks they have been boasting that the Conservatives dare not open a constituency in Quebec. Now that the opportunity has been afforded the Liberals to show that the Conservatives have lost ground in Quebec, they refuse to make good their boasts. After the last election Liberals claimed that the Conservatives were at the mercy of the Nationalists. Tests came on the Manitoba boundary question and on the navy question, and there was no evidence of Nationalist domination. The cry was then changed, and it was claimed that the Conservatives had alienated the Nationalists, and thereby ceased to have any hold on the Quebec electorate. The Hochelaga election resulted in the return of a Liberal, but by only fifty per cent. of the former majority. When Hochelaga was opened, Liberals boasted that they would contest the seat, and show the decline of Conservatism in Quebec.

They have made an ignominious back-down, and where they dare not face the issue, are relying on the Nationalists to make a fight. The Liberals have had to cast their burden on Henry Bourassa. To save the situation, the Liberals have to depend on the Nationalists.

Sir Wilfrid's excuse will not be accepted by the people of Canada. It is remarkable that he discovered that there was a navy question when a vacancy occurred in Quebec, but when MacDonald, in Manitoba, was open, his eyes were closed to this important issue. Is it another case of his political proclivities, a different policy for each province and each nationality. Sir Wilfrid would make the navy the issue in Quebec, and free trade on the prairie. He would not hurt the manufacturers while in Ontario, but in Saskatchewan would wipe out the last vestige of protection. He would preach Imperialism in Nova Scotia and British Columbia, but in Quebec would resent any closer relations with the Mother Country. It was proper to fight a by-election in Manitoba, but improper in Quebec. Surely Sir Wilfrid has strayed far from the Liberalism of Brown, Mackenzie and Blake.

The outlook for the Liberal party is not encouraging, especially when they fear a contest in Quebec. In Ontario, the Whitney government has won two important by-elections since Sir Wilfrid's "triumphant tour." The federal by-election in Carleton Place, the Liberal allowed to go by default. In Manitoba, the Conservative majority was five times what it was in 1911, although all the resources of the Federal Liberal party and the provincial Liberal party in this province was thrown into the contest. In Saskatchewan, the postponed elections of Cumberland were Conservative, although the Liberals have practically stolen the seat. In British Columbia, the Liberal majority of 747 was reduced to 301, and now they dare not face the issue in Hochelaga, but have sent out a wild cry to the Nationalists to prevent an acclamation. No matter how Liberals may boast, the facts show that Laurierism is dying, not reviving—Wesley Weekly Press.

MR. BENNETT'S FUTURE.

(Edmonton Journal)
A Chicago man makes the prediction that some day Mr. R. B. Bennett will be Premier of Canada. The fact that peculiar conditions have not allowed the entrance of the member for Calgary into the Dominion Cabinet up to the present should shut no one's eyes to the fact of his great capacity for public affairs. There is a career of great distinction ahead of him at Ottawa, if he does not allow himself to be drawn into politics in the Old Land.

The rumor is revived from time to time that he contemplates going to Westminster. If he did so, it would be a misfortune both for himself and for Canadian politics. We have not so many men of outstanding ability that we can spare him.

All of this will be disputed by few who know his record in the politics of Alberta. It is satisfactory, however, to find that wider recognition is being given him outside the province. The Moose Jaw News, for instance, in a recent issue has this to say:
"It would occasion no surprise if Mr. Bennett were early called to the Cabinet. As an exponent of government policy no better man could be had. The West also needs him there, for he represents its aspirations, and is so splendidly qualified to express its opinions. Men of the Bennett type cannot be denied their place. They make it, and if their work is marred the fact may be attributed to their own act."

With Serbia in possession of nearly all Turkish places of importance on the Adriatic, with Greece in possession of Salonika and the great district around it, with the Montenegrins victorious all along their frontier and far into Turkish territory, with Serbia and Greece hammering Monastir, and with Bulgaria already ready to hurl her victorious army at the very gates of Constantinople, the last hope of Turkey is in European intervention. On the field of battle she has everywhere been hopelessly beaten, and in the diplomatic field she will probably be left without a friend. Thus has she at last apparently been compelled to pay the penalty of her more than a thousand years of misrule, of horrible cruelty and of base treachery in Europe.

That there is much nonsense being published about the high cost of living, Mr. J. Adam Bede, the American congressman, makes one realize by citing a few figures.
"Do you know," he asks, "that $25,000,000 a year is spent for chewing gum, $75,000,000 for confectionery, $22,000,000 for ice-cream and soda water, $800,000,000 for cheap jewelry, $1,500,000,000 for tobacco and more than that for liquor? The moving pictures cost $1,000,000,000 worth of business a year. Just think of this! Cut these unnecessary things, or else pay the fiddler without complaining, if you want to waste your small change instead of saving it in your homes."

The Journal has frequently remarked that when the Western Liberals speak of reciprocity as still the policy of the party, they do so with out any warrant from the eastern wing, where the party's policy is daily being redefined. In confirmation of this we find the Hamilton Times calling for a party convention and saying: "We have had Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Ontario and elsewhere making speeches, in which he has called on the Tories to define their policy regarding reciprocity and the navy, but the Liberal policy regarding the former has not been definitely laid down."—Edmonton Journal.

Toronto Mail and Empire: Ex-President Eliot has been advising the Harvard students to marry young. Of course, in his country the younger they marry the more frequently they can marry.

The Edmonton Journal on Saturday last started a series of articles on public affairs in the province of Alberta. The first article was on the single tax and should be read by every person desirous of studying the problems confronting the people of this great western province today.

HE WAS AN EXPERT.

The householder smothered his wrath and descended to the basement. "Are you the plumber?" he asked of the grimy-looking individual who was tinkering with the pipes in the cellar.
"Yes, gov'nur," answered the man.
"Been long in the trade?"
"Fout a year, gov'nur."
"Ever made mistakes?"
"Bless yer, no, gov'nur!"
"Oh, then, I suppose it's all right. I imagined you had connected up the wrong pipes, for the chandelier in the drawing-room is playing like a fountain, and the bathroom tap's on fire."

BURNING STRAW A GREAT WASTE

Material for Cardboard and Packing Paper Factories—Feed it to Live Stock.

The Agricultural Department at Ottawa in its official Circular known as "Census and Statistics Monthly," says: "In the Northwest provinces the waste practice of burning the straw is reported as everywhere prevalent. In Manitoba, in most cases, wheat straw is either all burnt or partly used as litter and the rest burnt. Farmers near enough to Winnipeg and other towns sell it for bedding purposes. Out and barley straw is nearly all used for fodder. In Saskatchewan most of the oat and some of the barley straw is used as fodder, but wheat straw and flax straw are burnt, except a small portion that is used as litter. It is a practice with many farmers who have cattle to let the animals feed at the straw piles all the winter, the straw left over being burnt in the spring. In a few cases farmers use straw burners. More live stock being kept in Alberta the straw in this province is largely used for fodder and litter; so that less is wasted by burning. As in Saskatchewan it is a common practice to allow cattle the run of the straw piles in the winter and burn the surplus in the spring. A correspondent reports that straw in his district was either all fed to farmers' own stock or was sold to ranchers, generally at $1 per cord. Another correspondent asks, why does not an enterprising concern start a factory for making cardboard and packing paper from straw as in European countries?"

Wherever mixed farming prevails the necessity for straw burning disappears. It has frequently been pointed out that the keeping of live stock provides an important additional source of revenue to supplement the sometimes precarious returns from grain growing. It gives winter occupation and enables the employment of permanent instead of casual labor and last, but not from the national point of view by no means the least it secures the maintenance or increase of fertility through the necessary introduction of scientific rotations and the return to the land of manurial constituents by the use of straw as fodder and litter."

London Free Press: Ontario Conservatives were sorry to see Hon. Alex. MacKay go, and they would equally regret the departure of Newton Wesley Howell.

TOWN COUNCIL HAVE BUSY SESSION

The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Thursday evening last, with His Worship Mayor R. B. Weller in the chair, and Councillors Galbraith, Bottrell, Botsford, Byers and Carswell in attendance.

CORRESPONDENCE.
An electrical engineer in Calgary asked for information re. electric light company. Referred to commissioning.

From the city of Nelson, asking for information re. electric light matters. Filed.

H. Leduc, of St. Albert, asked that arrears of taxes on lots south of town for years 1910 and 1911, formerly used as a Roman Catholic church, be cancelled. He was willing to pay and had paid 1912 taxes.

The Merchants Bank asked permission to side in the sidewalk in front of their new bank building while in course of construction.

The report of the Medical Health Officer for October was received. He reported on what he thought was a form of tuberculosis in the gizzard of a chicken. He thought he should see an inspector of meat in Red Deer.

W. E. Lord wrote suggesting the purchase of two lots in Woodlea Crescent for the purpose of building an open air skating rink. These could be purchased for $2,000.

E. Carswell, Secretary of the Farmers' Co-operative, made an office to lease scales in stock yard.

Geo. M. Hall, industrial commissioner, Edmonton, asked the town to send delegates to town planning convention in that city.

Canada Cement Co., Limited, of Montreal, wrote giving average estimate of cost of cement pavement.

The Mayor said this was in reply to request for information asked for. They gave an average cost of $1.50 per square yard.

As the Town was unable to send a delegate to the Industrial Convention, Regina, 8th and 9th of November, the Mayor telegraphed that the Town was opposed to the bonusing system.

H. Meers handed in a report on the building convention at Calgary, at which he was a delegate. Filed.

R. B. Owens, Provincial Sanitary Engineer, Edmonton, sent in a report on the new filtration basin stating the suggested improvements were worth one thousand dollars to the town, but he did not think the water would be much better, nor did the town need a costly system just yet.

The request of H. Leduc was referred to the Town Solicitor for his report thereon.

The request of the Merchants Bank was granted, subject to the building inspector, and that an electric sidewalk should be provided for this Christmas season.

Isaac Wilson, F.R.S.A.C., wrote to Cluny, Alta., with regard to giving lectures in various cities of the west on "Homes Beautiful" or similar title. On motion of Councillor Galbraith, the Mayor referred to the Horticultural Society with intimation that the Council would be pleased to allow Town Hall for any lecture by this character the Society may think wise to arrange for.

The Medical Health Officer was asked to suggest to the Commissioners means of municipal meat inspection at a reasonable cost, on motion of Councillors Galbraith and Bottrell.

R. Michener, asking the Town to adjust the cost of sidewalk in Highland Park and other subdivisions, as this was promised when the Town took over eastern subdivisions. This matter will be taken up with Mr. Michener on his return.

With regard to the lease of the stock yard scales by the Farmers' Co-operative Association, Councillor Galbraith thought this would entail a hardship on other buyers, and opposed leasing the scales to the Association.

The Mayor explained that the Co-operative Association guaranteed to pay all charges in connection with the scales, and the Commissioners favored leasing to them as it would relieve the Council of all further responsibility.

The action of the Commissioners in leasing the Stock yard scales to the Farmers' Co-operative Association was confirmed on motion of Councillors Carswell and Byers.

Councillors Galbraith and Byers were appointed delegates to the Town Planning Convention at Edmonton on Nov. 15th and 16th.

Considerable discussion took place on Engineer Owen's report and also that of Engineer Dave.

The cost of enlarging the filtration will probably be considerable less than $1000.

Moved by Councillors Galbraith and Bottrell that, in view of the fact that the Council, in the reports of Engineer Dave and Engineer Owen re. Engineer Dave's amendment of filter intake, that the engineer be instructed to go ahead with his amended plan.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.
The Commissioners brought in the following report:

The sidewalk contractor, after laying the crossing on Fifth Street North, stopped work for the season. As it was impossible to grade down to these crossings without great expense, we have had the crossings filled with gravel for the winter.

We submit herewith samples of water taken from the water mains from the Windsor Hotel, the Arlington Hotel and the Town Hall. In view of the fact that S. Wilson has claimed the Town water is not fit for use, has billed the Town for $60.00 for water, and has not paid his water rates in accordance with the by-law, we ask your instructions as to what to do in connection therewith. We have been much dissatisfied with the work on the cement construction this year. After the contract was let we informed the engineers that we will have Gaetz & Sons, South completed without fail so that the road could be graded. This work has been completed, though other walks that we considered less necessary were, in spite of the fact that we gave positive instructions to stop work on them and start work on Gaetz & Sons. We have had some carts hauled to fill the centre of the road so it will not be impassable in the spring.

The east half of the cemetery has been cleared and plowed ready for laying out into lots in the spring. We are arranging to have the building there moved to the centre of the cemetery.

The Alberta Pacific Elevator Co. claimed to have lost the transfer to the mill property sold to them by the Town. Acting on the advice of Mr. Greene, we executed a new transfer to the property, taking an indemnity bond from the company.

We recommended that we be authorized to have a telephone installed in the police station.

The hydrants have all been flushed, also the sewers, and they are now in shape for winter.

The small part of Woodlea has been plowed up, also the part of Gaetz Park between the grove and the river. During the winter we purpose having the dead wood cut out of Gaetz Park.

The Michener Hill has been graded and is now in good shape for winter.

As we have received complaints of manure and rubbish being dumped on private property in North Red Deer, we visited the nuisance ground with the coroner and decided to have a part of it fenced in and used for a dumping ground. Notices will be posted along the road leading to it so that there will not be any excuse for dumping outside the place provided.

Pursuant to your instructions, we have located the skating rink in the Town Square and will have them ready for use as soon as possible.

We recommended that the annual ratcatchers' meeting be held in the Town Hall on Friday night, November 22nd, at 8 p.m. We recommended that we be authorized to purchase one hundred chairs.

We believe the time has come for Red Deer to be incorporated as a city. The population, as shown by the census returns, just received, we recommended that we be authorized to apply to the Provincial Legislature for a city charter and to prepare it in conjunction with the Solicitor.

The provisions to be submitted to the Council for ratification.

The Town applied for permission to hold a boxing bout in Red Deer. We recommended that permission be not granted.

We recommended that a delegate be sent to the Town Planning Convention to be held in Edmonton tomorrow.

We submit statement of receipts and disbursements for October. We submit accounts for your authorization to pay.

We ordered some chairs for the new Town Hall. About 65 were all we could get.

We submit statement of Mr. Owens on new filtration plan.

A. T. STEPHENSON,
R. B. WELLS,
Commissioners.

Considerable discussion took place on clause two, regarding S. Wilson's complaint against town water.

The Mayor favored not notifying Mr. Wilson that unless his water rates were paid, water would be cut off, but rather that the Town then intend to furnish him with any more water.

Councillor Carswell only favored notifying that water would be cut off unless paid, but he thought it would be better to let the Council of all further responsibility.

The action of the Commissioners in leasing the Stock yard scales to the Farmers' Co-operative Association was confirmed on motion of Councillors Carswell and Byers.

Councillors Galbraith and Byers were appointed delegates to the Town Planning Convention at Edmonton on Nov. 15th and 16th.

Considerable discussion took place on Engineer Owen's report and also that of Engineer Dave.

The cost of enlarging the filtration will probably be considerable less than $1000.

Moved by Councillors Galbraith and Bottrell that, in view of the fact that the Council, in the reports of Engineer Dave and Engineer Owen re. Engineer Dave's amendment of filter intake, that the engineer be instructed to go ahead with his amended plan.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.
The Commissioners brought in the following report:

FACTORY GROWTH WESTERN CANADA

Remarkable Increase in Manufactures as Shown by the Census Figures of the Past Ten Years

While the figures of the census of the manufacturing Canada, 1911, reflect with emphasis the extraordinary industrial development of Canada during the past decade, particularly in the five years following 1905, the most surprising and gratifying growth is west of the great lakes, in the three prairie provinces, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Manitoba has made great strides industrially since 1905, while the other two provinces particularly Alberta, have also made greater progress in manufacturing since 1905 than before that. Here is the story:

MANITOBA
(1910 Compared with 1905)
Establishments: Increase ..... 24%
Capital: Increase ..... 74%
Employees: Increase ..... 76%
Salaries and wages: Increase ..... 100%
Value of Products: Increase ..... 90%

SASKATCHEWAN
(1910 Compared with 1905)
Establishments: Increase ..... 110%
Capital: Increase ..... 77%
Employees: Increase ..... 125%
Salaries and wages: Increase ..... 170%
Value of Products: Increase ..... 151%

(1910 Compared with 1905)
Establishments: Increase ..... 142%
Capital: Increase ..... 432%
Employees: Increase ..... 241%
Salaries and wages: Increase ..... 265%
Value of products: Increase ..... 266%
Increases in a five year period that exceed two hundred per cent. there is surely a progress which will attract the eyes of the world. More over manufacturing in the West is as yet but in its infancy, and it does not require any stretch of imagination to see in the near future tall chimneys, busy workshops, and an army of workers in thriving populous centres throughout the West.

The increase in manufactures in the three prairie provinces during the two periods 1900 and 1905, and 1905 to 1910 was as follows:

| 1900                | 1905         | 1910         |              |
|---------------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|
| Establishments:     | 324          | 564          | 439          |
| Capital:            | $ 7,539,991 | $27,517,297 | $47,941,840 |
| Employees:          | 5,219        | 10,333       | 17,326       |
| Salaries and Wages: | $ 2,419,549 | $ 6,609,971 | $10,912,586 |
| Value of Products:  | $12,927,439 | $26,156,732 | $53,673,609 |

In the year 1900, the manufacture of Alberta and Saskatchewan were so insignificant that they were given in the same total, as follows: Establishments, 106; capital, $1,689,870; employees, 1,165; salaries and wages, $465,762, and value of products, $1,964,987.

By 1905 there was a different tale to tell, however, for by this time the figures in other provinces were great or by far than the combined totals for the two provinces in 1900.

SASKATCHEWAN
Establishments: 1905 1910
Capital: $3,978,076 $7,019,981
Employees: 1,444 3,320
Sal. and wages: 721,872 1,936,284
Val. of Prods: 2,520,172 6,335,133

ALBERTA
Establishments: 1905 1910
Capital: $5,845,821 $25,518,346
Employees: 2,046 6,966
Sal. and wages: 1,167,107 4,305,661
Val. of Prods: 5,116,782 18,698,824

Here is a statement which shows the development in the West since 1900 compared with the whole of Canada:

| Canada   | Establishments | Capital | Employees | Sal. and wages | Value of Products |
|----------|----------------|---------|-----------|----------------|-------------------|
| Canada   | 31% Increase   | 175     | 51        |                |                   |
| Manitoba | 9%             | 285     | 20        |                |                   |
| Sask.    | 116%           | 77      | 125       |                |                   |
| Alberta  | 142%           | 432     | 241       |                |                   |

Admires Canadians
In the comparison of the numbers of millions of population our country, and that of the United States, it is the figures are never used in relation to respective advancement. We think of the vastness of the population of the United States, and the magnitude of development of vast stretches of land, and the rapid opening up of new country. And those who have had opportunity to observe with their own eyes the vastness of the prairie provinces in the north-west, in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia, have been struck by the fact that in a few years past to satisfy our pride in them as neighbors and relatives, they have been doing so during the past and the near future.

PUBLIC SCHOOL BOARD

Finds Attendance Increasing Talk Over High School

The Red Deer Public School Board held its monthly meeting on Wednesday night. Present: Mr. Simpson, in the chair; Mr. Munro, Secretary; Mr. Payne, Mr. Carswell, Mr. Gaetz, and Principal McKenna.

THANKS FOR ENTERTAINMENT.
Miss Hartley, secretary of the Red Deer Intermediate Teachers' Association, enclosed a resolution adopted at the convention, thanking the Board for their entertainment.

FINANCES.

The Board briefly discussed a letter from their banker asking them to collect some of the school money from the town, and to make efforts to sell their $10,000 of debentures. The Secretary said the Town Treasurer told him he hoped to give the Board some money this week, and the only offer they had got so far for their bonds—$4—they considered too low. They were advertising in the Financial Post this week.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT.

The registers for the month of October give the following: Enrollment 442, daily attendance 403, per centage in attendance 90.5. The corresponding figures of last year are—Enrollment 385, daily attendance 363, percentage in attendance 86. The increase in enrollment is 55, or nearly 14 per cent. Since new figures were collected there has been a large number of new students added—students that were out in the country and are returning to start the business figure. From Miss Wilson has 51 enrolled, Miss Hill with two grades has 19, and Miss Hill 12. Miss Hill should have over 35, as the grades she teaches are difficult. Miss Wilson cannot seat all the students who are at present in attendance, and I do not see how it is possible to relieve the condition except by opening a new room.

I have looked over the returns in the town with reference to census. Through there was a considerable number of families that did not give the ages of their children. I found 278 children in the town, not including North Red Deer, between the ages of 7 and 14. I am quite safe in saying there is 10 per cent more than the census figure. From the registers there are 265 pupils between the above ages. This leaves at least 30 between these ages that are not attending school. The teachers have informed me that several pupils take an afternoon or two a week of selling papers, and bring a more next day to their parents, asking them to be excused. The only way to overcome these conditions is by putting the Compulsory Attendance Act into force.

Dr. Collison has started the medical examination of the children. While it is impossible to give the exact figures there is at least 90 per cent of those examined whose teeth need attention. By the close of the month the inspection will be completed, when I hope to be able to give an extended report.

Mrs. Quigg has taken charge of the subject of music. The charts have been ordered, but they have not yet arrived. The classes were opened on the first of November. The arrangement made was for three months at $40 a month. In the discussion on the Principal's report the action of the committee in engaging Mrs. Quigg was endorsed.

The Principal had interviewed the town dentists, and they would fix up the children's teeth on very reasonable terms.

The chairman, the principal and Mr. Payne were appointed a committee to deal with the Treasury Act as it applies to this district with power to appoint an officer.

ACCOUNTS.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid:—
Best Furniture Co., $5; Gaetz-Cornett Co., $10.80; W. Sprague, $5; E. J. Edgington, $2; F. K. Griffin, $30; Smith & Gaetz, $26.25; Day Hardware Co., $47.43; Larrie Theatre, $29; Alberta Supply Co., $35.62; G. M. Hendry & Co., $21; Rev. C. W. G. Moore, $10.25; T. A. Gaetz, $1.25; Silver Burdett Co., $40; Board of Trade, $26.75; M. A. Munro, $71; Black & Roberton, $15.50; Town of Red Deer, $35.20; G. H. Parker, $5.50; Town of Red Deer, $12.50; News Publishing Co., $22.50.

GENERAL BUSINESS.

Miss Goudie's salary was increased $100 owing to her teaching in draw and art.

Mr. H. M. Wright has been appointed caretaker of Red Deer School at a salary of $20 a month.

MORE ACCOMMODATION.

The Board then discussed the matter of further accommodation. It was decided to open another room at the New Year and the Secretary will write to a teacher the Board have in view.

Principal McKenna went into the matter of High School plans. The generally favored building would be the three sides of a square, giving adequate light and ventilation. He had been first in favor, he said, of using the present central school as a high school, but the more he went into the matter, and saw what an accommodation was being provided for the new developments in education such as commercial work, manual training, and other sciences, he thought the more he realized that a new building would be necessary. The question of site was superficially considered, the present school site having a number of advantages. The Principal looked forward to a High School attendance of 100 next year. The Board adjourned at 10.15.

HON. ROBT. ROGERS ABLE ADMINISTRATOR

New Minister of Public Works is Recognized as an Exceedingly Capable Business Man.

The re-organization of the cabinet made necessary by the resignation of Hon. F. D. Monk, saw the promotion of Hon. Robert Rogers, Minister of Interior, to the Department of Public Works. If there is any portfolio where Mr. Rogers should be at home it is in Public Works, as for over ten years he was Minister of Public Works in the Roblin administration in Manitoba. Mr. Rogers is an indefatigable worker, and has splendid administrative ability, so that he is recognized as peculiarly fitted for the position. Public Works is a portfolio which demands many things a business man—it is, a business department. Mr. Rogers is essentially a business man who will adopt business methods in the administration of this important portfolio.

BORN IN QUEBEC.

Not many people know that Mr. Rogers is a Quebecer man by birth. Despite his white locks he is one of the young men of the cabinet, being only 38. He was born March 2nd, 1864, at Lakefield, Quebec, the son of Lieut.-Col. George Rogers. Early in life he went west where he engaged in business in southern Manitoba. He is one of the pioneers of the province. He first ran as a candidate in 1890, when after a spectacular campaign he was beaten by Lester B. Pearson by a large margin.

SPLENDID PARLIAMENTARIAN.

Mr. Rogers, although he does not pretend to be an orator, is a first class debater and an astute and able parliamentarian. His work last session marked him as one of the strong men of the government. He has an unequalled success as Minister of Interior, and in the Department of Public Works it is felt he will place it on a sound business basis.

WISER COUNSEL PREVAILING

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Letter to the Hochelaga Executive Reveals Disinclination to Commit Party on Question of Naval Aid.

Liberal Naval Attitude.

The prospect of serious opposition to a Canadian contribution toward the naval defence of the Empire is growing daily more remote. There are evidences that wiser and more patriotic counsel within the Liberal party is prevailing and will prevail. Not the least of these evidences is found in the refusal of the Liberal leaders to authorize a contest in the riding of Hochelaga in the bye-election made necessary by the entry of Hon. Louis Caubere into the Dominion Government. The opposition leader has sent a letter to the Liberal executive in the riding advising that the reelection of Hon. Louis Caubere is not contested by a Liberal candidate. The general knowledge that some form of immediate aid from Canada is likely to be proposed to parliament has been common property since the resignation of Hon. F. D. Monk. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has shared that general knowledge, and in the light of it he wrote to the Liberal executive of Hochelaga as follows:

THE LAURIER LETTER.

"Before his departure for London and since his return to Canada, the prime minister has declared that after consultation with the admiralty, he would make known his naval policy to the people of Canada. We do not know as yet in what this policy consists, and notwithstanding the resignation of one of his colleagues we do not know more than imperfectly the real causes of this disagreement. The session will open in a few days and the government will then have to acquaint us with the negotiations that have been had with the imperial authorities, the programme agreed upon, and the divergence of opinion between the minister who has resigned and his colleagues. I recognize the desire of the Liberals of Hochelaga to oppose the candidature of the new candidate; but I do not see how more allegiance to the Liberal cause. Our naval policy is known. It has not changed since March 24th, 1900, but would be opportune to take up the matter before knowing what is the new policy of the government? I have said many times since the last conference at London that I would assent to the explanation of the government before discussing the naval policy. I prefer to wait."

PREFERS TO WAIT.

"It is on the floor of the House, when we are in possession of all the documents, we can pronounce ourselves. To make the light in the country of Hochelaga on the eve of the session and without other information than is furnished by vague rumors appearing in the press for the last weeks would be, to my mind, to prejudice the question. It is before parliament that the naval policy may be announced, and in my opinion it is there that it must be judged on its merits and combined if there is need. Yours very truly, (Sgd.) Wilfrid Laurier."

November Rod and Gun

The story of a 4,000 mile trip after moose is told by a German hunter in the opening number of the November issue of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ont. Frank Houghton contributes an amusing tale of western life entitled "Two is not always company," while the seventh article of the series "The culture of black and silver foxes," under the heading "Food and feeding," appears in this issue. A trip after caribou in Newfoundland, the seventh summer camp of the Alpine club of Canada, tenderfoot deer hunters in the Laurentian mountains, a trip to the Coast, game protection in British Columbia, a wolf hunt in Saskatchewan and other stories and articles constitute a typically Canadian bill of fare for sportsmen and lovers of outdoor life.

A WONDERFUL CASE

Three Months in Hospital and Came Out Cured.

ZAM-BUK CURED HIM IN FEW WEEKS

Mr. Fred Mason, the well-known upholsterer and mattress manufacturer of St. Andrews, N. B., says: "I had eczema on my knee, which caused me terrible pain and inconvenience. The sore spots would itch and burn and tingle, and then when rubbed or scratched, would become very painful. When the knee got warm, it burning worse, and the itching and burning and smarting were almost unbearable. I tried various remedies, but got no better, so I decided to go to Montreal and take special treatment. I received treatment at the Montreal General Hospital. I was cured in a few weeks and of that time I was not cured, almost gave in. A friend advised me to give Zam-Buk a trial. "Almost as soon as I applied Zam-Buk stopped the itching and the burning. I persevered with the balm, and it was soon evident that it would be a good cure. Each day the pain was reduced, the sore spots began to heal, and by the time I had used a few boxes of Zam-Buk I was quite cured. "Since then Zam-Buk has cured blood-poison in my finger, and at a time when my finger was in such a terrible condition I feared it would never be amputated. For eczema, phlegmonous, piles, ulcers, sores, abscesses various ulcers, bad leg, cold sores, chapped hands, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin injuries and diseases, Zam-Buk is without equal. 50c box all druggists and stores or send free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse imitations."

ALBERTA LESSON

Simon Downie & Sons Are Making Great Progress in Mixed Farming

The farm of Simon Downie & Sons, east of Calgary, Alberta, is an object lesson of the possibilities in mixed farming in Western Canada. On their tract of land of a thousand acres there are four hundred hogs, big and little, and one hundred head of pure bred and grade Herefords, all in fine shape and doing remarkably well. To raise sufficient feed for this number, which represents the average quantity on hand the year round, some seven hundred acres has been broken and is cropped to wheat, oats, barley and timothy. All grains are ground before being fed and in some cases are mixed with chopped green feed. The annual grain crop is something around twenty thousand bushels and practically all of it is fed on the place and at the present prices of live stock, good profits result. To facilitate the easy handling of these immense quantities of grain, a milling plant has been installed in the corner of the hog house which measures forty by one hundred feet, operated from an eight horsepower gasoline engine. A cutting box for green feed has been put in, as it is found that cattle do much better when the green feed is cut up into small lengths. Hogs have been found great money producers and are kept in sufficient numbers to absorb what grain is raised. The very best of results are obtained from feeding ground oats and barley and but six to eight weeks of heavy feeding are required to fit the hogs for the market.

Travelling Stock School.

Arrangements have been concluded with the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway by the Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture for Alberta, for a special live stock train to be run over the company's lines throughout the province. The train will be a travelling stock school, run upon the most practical lines and dairying and hog raising will be the special subjects dealt with by lecturers of the provincial department of agriculture.

$25,000 University.

There have been important conference in London on the subject of the establishment of a South African teaching university. A sum of $25,000,000 was left by Mr. Alfred Beit and Sir Julius Wernher for such an institution at Groote Schuur, and towards carrying out Mr. Cecil Rhodes' original idea, which never materialized during his lifetime.

A WARNING FROM QUEBEC CITY

Box 387, Quebec.

Dear Bulletin:—Pray allow me to warn your readers, and to ask exchanges to warn theirs, against Mrs. Anne or Alice Connelley, nee Siskie (who calls herself also by many other names), a German Jewess, born in St. Louis, Mo., and her husband, Noble Connelley, who also signs "Noble" for short, an Irish R.C., born near Little Rock, Ark. They have defrauded W.C.T.U. unions in Brandon, Man., and further west, in Ontario, in Sydney, C.B., in St. John, and Moncton, N.B. Now I hear that besides being arrested and tried in two of these places Mrs. Connelley is wanted for robbery and forgery at several places in the U.S., is on parole from Stillwater, Minn. State's prison, where she has served time for forgery. This last information comes to me first to-day from the Lloyd Publishing Company in Washington, which offers $200 reward for her arrest and return of letters, booklets, and papers stolen from them. She had a letter from me which I wish confiscated, and returned to me.

Mr. and Mrs. Connelley got out 1,000 shop cards with W.C.T.U. news for one year, collected nearly $800 and disappeared. With slight variation this was their plan elsewhere. They went from St. to Watertown, N. Y., and were heard of at Adams, Ill., afterwards, at the same game all the time.

Mrs. Connelley is very dark, very tall and slight, handsome, quick, with a pleasing manner, age 26. Noble Connelley is medium height, clean-shaven, not very dark, turning grey, age 43.

Yours,
LEILA GUY GREGG.

A "BULLETIN" EMISSION

IN INDIA.

King George has given one million of dollars for higher education in India. A noble gift. For years, Indians in Britain and America have spent money freely in furnishing the "dreaded class of India" with pernicious literature. This has been done by the mail. Every student in every college was supplied. Wherever there was an opportunity the post carried the vile seed which has done its deadly work. The drink trade is also a terrible iniquity in our Sister Nation.

Last Autumn a returned Medical Missionary of India called on me and urged me to try and get people to send out all the good literature possible. He said that our "Northern Messenger" from the Witness Office in Montreal had been the means of the redemption of a railway man in India. He had been a pronounced drunkard but that one paper was his salvation. No one knows but God who sent that paper. Its whole history lies in its city. The late John Dougal of Montreal originated "The Northern Messenger" as a distinctly Missionary agency. The late Miss Jane Dougal, of beloved memory, was its editor for many years.

Our opportunity is before us. Let us be up and doing. Will every W.C.T.U. Union and every W.C.T.U. woman possible send in a subscription to J. Dougal & Son, Witness Office, Montreal, for a "Northern Messenger" to India. Dr. G. G. Smith, of Pithapuram, Godavari District, India, will receive and circulate all we can possibly have sent to him.

The King of England

To the Editor of The News.

Dear Sir,—May I be allowed to trespass on the columns of your valuable paper to make a short reference to the above subject uttered in the pulpit of one of the town churches on Sunday last.

So as to make the subject of study more clear to his audience, the preacher used the above expression, and really I was more than surprised to hear such an expression from a learned one as the one I was listening to. The sermon was all perfect and I would not wish to hear a better one, but he didn't hit the "King of Britain." Are Scotland and Ireland so insignificant that they are not to be included in the King's title? I hope the members to enter into any controversy on the subject, but I may say that Scotland and Ireland contribute their own share, and a big share at that, to make England what she is. If the President of the United States were called the President of Washington, how would the other States take it? There are other States besides Washington; so also there are other diamonds in the crown of the "King of England." I hope the expression will soon die out and the true and righteous one used, "King of Britain."

Yours truly,
CITIZEN.
Red Deer, Alta., Nov. 11, 1912.

Doctors Severely Scored; Smallpox in Quebec

Montreal, Nov. 11.—With several new cases of smallpox in Montreal within the last 48 hours, 65 known cases in Beauharnois, 35 known cases in St. Laurent, upwards of twenty-one municipalities in the province are affected by the malady. This is stated by Dr. J. A. Beaudry, chief inspector of the provincial board of health, who says it is the net result of ignorance and negligence on the parts of the members of the medical profession in and about Montreal and Quebec.

Dr. Beaudry, speaking of the conditions prevailing throughout the province, declared that the known cases were but an indication of the conditions as they really exist. He added that it would take an army of inspectors to supervise the carrying out of health regulations as regards smallpox.

The provincial authorities in their campaign had to meet with the prejudice of the people on the one hand, and the ignorance of the medical profession on the other. The latter, declared Dr. Beaudry, was appalling and constituted by far the greatest obstacle in the way of the public health authorities.

Equality of Sexes in Divorce Courts Is Strongly Urged

Committee Which Has Been Investigating in England For Several Years Makes Result Public.

London, Nov. 11.—The committee on divorce which has been investigating this subject for several years has made public the results of its enquiry. The majority report recommends that the two sexes to be placed on an equality before the law with regard to grounds for divorce, which shall be adultery, desertion for three years, incurable insanity, after five years confinement and habitual drunkenness found to be incurable after three years.

From the issuance of the first separation order it recommends that all divorce cases shall be heard by a judge alone, who is empowered to close the court during the hearings and prohibit the publication of the details.

The majority reports also recommends that no report on matrimonial cases shall be allowed until they have been furnished and that the publication of the portraits of the parties thereto shall be prohibited.

The report states that the evidence taken during the investigations showed that the proposed extension of the grounds for divorce, far from tending to lower the standard of morality, had a contrary effect and that the present stringent restrictions and costliness of divorces are productive of immorality and illicit relations, particularly among the poorer classes.

This report is signed by nine commissioners.

The minority report, which is signed by the Archbishop of York and two other commissioners, opposes the extension of the causes for divorce on the ground that this is destructive to the sanctity of marriage ties and family life, and contrary to the principles of Christian faith in its relations to marriage.

LOOK!

If you were told of a new discovery for the treatment of coughs, colds and bronchitis, as certain in its action on all chest troubles as anti-toxin in diphtheria, or vaccination on small-pox, wouldn't you feel like giving it a trial? Especially if you could try it for fifty cents!

Peps is the discovery!

Peps is little tablets, mostly wrapped in air and gum-proof silver foil. They contain certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapour, and are at once breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the capillaries and tiny air sacs in the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and at once commence their work of healing.

Peps are entirely distinct from the old-fashioned liquid cough cures, which are merely snowed into the stomach and never reach the lungs. Peps treatment of coughs and colds is direct treatment.

If you have not yet tried Peps, cut out this article, write across it the name and date of this paper, and mail it (with 1c. stamp to pay postage) to the Peps Co., 1000 Dundas St. W., Toronto. A free trial pack will then be sent you.

All druggists and stores sell Peps at 50c. box.

The Canadian Order of Foresters hold their annual church parade on Sunday next, Nov. 24th. They will meet at the court room in the Oddfellows' Hall at 10.30, and then march to the Baptist Church. Any member of the Foresters in town, and not being a member of this lodge, are cordially invited to attend.

Only five weeks to Christmas.

Mrs. D. S. Smith, who was dangerously ill, is some better.

John T. Moore was in town for a short time last week. He was looking particularly well.

Geo. Quinton, Horn Hill, last Wednesday set a straw stack on fire and the blaze was seen in town.

N. Murphy & Co. have apples in their window grown the fall of 1911. The fruit is a little dry looking but first class eating.

A. D. Gregson, wife and child are leaving for England for the Xmas holidays. They will sail on the Megantic, Nov. 23rd.

Major McLean, of Winnipeg, was in town on Monday looking up a suitable site for a Salvation Army barracks. He has several sites in view and a selection will be made in a few days.

John Larsen, of Sheridan, Ill., was the guest of O. Eggen, Blindman Valley, a short time ago. Mr. Larsen is so well pleased with this part of the country that he will be back in the spring to permanently reside here.

The editor of The News has had pansies in full bloom on the south side of his residence up to this 20th day of November. They can be seen any day. During the past twenty years we have never known such fine weather in November.

The members of the Baptist Ladies' Aid will hold their annual sale of work and ten cent tea in the basement of the church on Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 21st, when many useful and fancy articles will be offered for sale, also home made cooking and candy.

The first annual dance of the Red Deer Lawn Tennis Club will be held on Friday, November 20th, under the patronage of Mrs. Cottingham and Mrs. W. L. Gibson. The Oddfellows' Hall has been secured, and Mr. Welton and Mrs. Hope will furnish the music. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Cornett, Miss Cottingham and Messrs. Seymour, Pope and Bennett, and tickets may be obtained from them. Couples, $1.50; extra ladies, 50c.

Forrester & McDonald will conduct a credit auction sale, on December 11th, for Adam McPherson, three-eighths of a mile south-west of Cattle's barn, near C. P. R. stockyards, of high class work horses, driving horses, mares and colts, three pure bred stallions, milk cows, implements, and other articles too numerous to mention. Look out for posters next week. Also remember the credit auction sale of horses, cattle, implements, etc., on Tuesday, Dec. 3rd. See ad.

Boys, don't forget the new pressing and repairing shop over Vineberg's store. Best work at shortest notice. Give us a call.—J. A. Abrams.

Freight Trains Collide.

In the early hours of Tuesday morning a tail-end collision occurred between two freight trains on the line from Crossfield to Carstairs. One train was being side-tracked, and the other train being too close caused the collision. Full particulars of the accident are not to hand, but the early morning train was delayed six hours, and it is reported that two train men were seriously injured and one cattleman killed, but it is not yet known whether this is true or not.

Nominations, 1912

The Municipal nominations will be held on Monday, Dec. 2nd, and the poll the following Monday, Dec. 9th. The School Board nominations and elections will be held the same days. Retiring Councillors will be Messrs. Malcolm, Byers and Botsford. The retiring school trustees are W. E. Payne and R. L. Gaetz. With regard to the Mayoralty contest, Councillors Galbraith, Carscallen and Botsford are all in the running. Councillor Galbraith has stated he will stand against all comers. Probably one of the other two gentlemen will withdraw.

The last word is that Councillor Botsford is definitely in the field for Mayor, Councillor Carscallen having withdrawn.

Supreme Court

Mr. Justice Walsh opened the adjourned sitting of the Supreme Court in the old Court House on Tuesday at 2 p.m. There are ten cases for hearing, as follows:

Spurrell v. Lauder and others.
Ridgeway v. Hill.
McKenzie v. Johnston.
Matthews v. Backstrom.
Gould et al v. Peets et al.
Wallace v. Hachborn.
Red Deer v. Postill.
Ratto v. Moore.
Mace v. Smith.
Hartig v. Ross.
Ridgeway versus Hill. This action was brought by plaintiff to recover the cost of board and lodgings, etc. Plaintiff's case was allowed. Defendant brought a counter claim for wages, which was dismissed. R. C. Murphy, of Castor, for Plaintiff; Harding for Defendant.

MacKenzie versus Johnson is proceeding as we go to press.

HOW different you feel carrying a good, bright lantern into the barn at night than when you have to go prowling around in the dark.

It is nearly as bad when you have one that smokes and makes a dim light, that is hard to light, and that blows out easily except when you want to put it out.

Our lanterns as well as all articles for the stable and home are the best made and very reasonably priced.
